GlobalEcoVillage Inc. signs LOI for site in Oracle. Az.

Global Ecovillage, Inc is pleased to announce that we have signed a letter of intent to purchase 17 acres at Rancho Robles, in Oracle Arizona, suitable for building a sustainable cohousing "Conservation Community."

The "Conservation Community" is a model which was designed by our lead architectural group, Village Habitat Design of Atlanta, Ga. VHD won the UN World Habitat award for "best sustainable community" out of over 560 applicants, with the East Lakes Common project in Atlanta. There is a youtube video of ELC, viewable at www.globalecovillage.com

GlobalEcoVillage is excited with the anticipated location at Rancho Robles in Oracle, Az. Rancho Robles is one of the old historic guest ranches of Arizona.

"We are excited to be locating this premier co-housing community in a location setting so rich with Arizona history and tradition. What an appropriate combination and blending of old and new!" said Ralph Watson, President of GlobalEcoVillage Inc.

Village Habitat Design, GEV's lead architect, also designed the master plan for the Ithaca Ecovillage in Ithaca New York, featured in Time Magazine, September 1997, They did the Master Plan for Fulton County, Ga., home county of Atlanta, Georgia, and they have done the Master Plan for an entire country, the island nation of Turk and Caicos.
